AFFAIRS IN BROOKLYN.

STREET RAILWAY MEN SUMMONED. THE APRIL GRAND JURY HAS AN INTERESTING LIST OF WITNESSES.

There was much interest taken in the session of the April Grand Jury yesterday, owing to the number of well-known men, including street-railroad presidents and city officials, who were summoned as witnesses. The list included City Works Commissioner Adams, Superintendent of Streets George II. Sterling, Daniel Northup, clerk to Commissioner Adams; City Clerk Michael J. Cummings, Deputy City Works Com-missioner James Murtha, Chief Clerk McDermott, of the City Works Department; Benjamin Norton, president of the Atlantic Avenue Rallroad Company; Daniel F. Lewis, president of the Brooklyn City Railroad Company and the Brooklyn Heights Railroad Company: S. S. Spencer, president of the Broadway Railroad and the Jamaica and Brooklyn Railroad; H. W. Newkirk, of the Broadway Railroad; Colonel John N. Partridge, of the Brooklyn City and Newtown Rail-road Company (the DeKalb-ave, line); Henry W. Sheum, jr., president of the Coney Island and Brook-lyn Railroad Company (the Smith-st. line): Michael Murphy, president of the Van Brunt Street and Erie

Basin Railroad, and George Maslen. There was much speculation as to the cause of noning so many prominent public men, and none of them professed to know. Only Commissioner Adams and City Cleck Commings were questioned by the jury, and the others will be summoned again. Ex-Alderman R. B. Leech is foreman of the Grand Jury. It was learned that the only matters inquired of from the officials questioned were in relation to the laying of crosswalks by permission of the Board of Alder-

RABBI HYMAN ROSENBERG DEAD. MEMBERS OF THE CONGREGATION QUARREL AT THE GRAVE.

Rabbi Hyman Rosenberg, who was dismissed by the congregation Beth-Jacob four months ago for eating sliced ham, died on Saturday from pneumonia. When Rosenberg was dismissed by the congregation his friends predicted that he would not long survive the Rosenberg failed to find a position else where, and at once began to drink bravily. About a week ago he caught cold, which developed into the disease which resulted in his death. Rabbi Rosenberg lived at No. 53 Scholes-st. Among the persons sen for by his wife was Louis Schwentz, president of the congregation, who was instrumental in having Rosenberg dismissed. He responded premptly, and washed the body according to the methods prescribed by the Jewish ritual and prepared it for builal, but when the funoral was held on Monday, Mr. Schwentz did not attend. The body was buried in the Washing-

The latest incident in connection with the synagogue trouble is the appearance of Henry Kohlman, of No. 251 Grand-st., who applied yesterday in the Lee-No. 251 Grand-st., who applied yesterday in the Lee Avenue Police Court for a warrant for the arrest of ex-Vice-Fresident Jackson. Mr. Kobliman, with several other members of the temple, attended the funeral of the rabble. At the grave, during a wordy war between Jackson and Kolman, Jackson is alleged to have picked up a rock that had been dug out of the newly made grave and threatened to kill Kohlman. It was for this that Kohlman asked for a warrant, and the case will be tried in the Lee Avenue Folice Court on Thursday.

DRUNK, WITH HIS POCKETS FULL OF JEWELRY. John Bowles, a young man, was found drunk yesterday morning by Policeman Earley, of the Fifth Precinct. When searched at the station-house fourteen gold watches, seven gold chains, seventeen gold rings and eight gold lead-pencils were found in his possession. He was at first unable to tell where he got the goods, and finally said he was a pedier and that the lewelry was his own. He was held by Justice Goetling pending an investigation.

DANIEL HAVILAND'S BRIEF WILL.

What is believed to be the shortest will in the Surrogate's office was filed yesterday. It is that of the late Daniel Haviland, of No. 32 Second Place, who died on April 7, and bequeaths an estate of $15,-000. It reads as follows:

New-York, April 6, 1893.

This is my last will and testament. I give and bequeath to my daughter, Mrs. Edith H. Smythe, all the property of which I may die possessed, and appoint her my executrix without bonds.

GATHERED ABOUT THE TOWN.

The work of making the street-car line in Franklinave., operated by the Breeklyn City and Newtown Railroad Company, ready for the trolley will begin to-day, and it is expected to have the new system ready for use by June 1.

An anneal has been taken from the order of Judge Osborne, in the City Court, requiring Colonel W. E. Sinn to pay $750 counsel fee to his wife, known as Miss Cora Tanner on the stage, in his suit to annul his marriage to her. He proposes to carry the matter to the Court of Appeals, if necessary. Argument will be held before the General Term on Monday.

Mrs. Mary Molloy, of No. 345 Court-st., died at the Long Island College Hospital yesterday from a dose of rat poison swallowed with suicidal intent. She would not give any cause for her act, although she admitted her intention of ending her life. She had a husband and five children. Mrs. Helen Stokes Turner, who secured divorce om Gilbert M. Turner, of Brooklyn, at White Plains last winter, was married at the home of her father. Charles Stokes, in New-York, to Horace Garfield Waite, of Chicago, on Saturday. Her husband is said to be related to the late Chief Justice Morrison R. Waite, of the United States Supreme Court. Dr. E. S. Bradley, formerly of Brooklyn, performed the S. L. Republican Club at its April meeting, on Tuesday next, on "American Cities." These meetings are of great value as an educational force, and cannot fail of doing good.

CAPTAIN M'CULLAGH TAKEN TO TASK.

POLICE JUSTICE VOORHIS WANTS HIM TO SE CURE EVIDENCE AND MAKE AN ARREST.

Police Justice John R. Voorbis and Police Captain ohn H. McCullagh, who rules in the 8th Precinct had a somewhat stormy meeting yesterday afternoon in the Jefferson Market Police Court. Several weeks ago Justice Voorhis had his attention attracted by the statements of several members of the "Happy Home gang," who said that they disposed of the pro-ceeds of their stealing to a Mrs. Flaherty, who lives in the big tenement-house, No. 548 Washington-st., near Charlton-st. The Justice made up his mind that it was the duty of Captain McCullagh to break up this "gang," and arrest Mrs. Flaherty on a charge of receiving stolen property.

Captain McCullagh yesterday called at the Court, id Justice Voorbis demanded to know why Mrs. Flaherty's place was not broken up and the woman

"I cannot 'pull' a place without evidence," re-plied the Captain, "and my men have been unable to find sufficient evidence to warrant me in arresting this woman.

That's your business and not mine." repiled the Justice in no pleasant tone. "It is your business to get evidence and break up such places. These boys who have been arrested say they disposed of their stolen property to Mrs. Flaherty, and you, as the police captain, should investigate the story and break the place up."

"You furnish me the evidence, and I'll break up the place quick enough," replied the Captain, "but I will not make any arrests on the mere statements of some boys, without any tangible evidence to back me up."

Both Detectives Clarker and Brown, who work under Capitalo McCallagh, declared that they could not find anything damaging to Mrs. Flaherty's character.

FURRIERS ELECT OFFICERS.

At the annual meeting of the Manufacturing Fur ders' Association at the Breadway Central Hotel resterday afternoon the following officers were elected to serve for the coming year. C. C. Shayne, president; George D. Greenfield, first vice-president; Albert Jackel, second vice-president; S. Schwersenski, treasurer, and John J. Prince, secretary; directors, Hugo Jaeckel, Edmund R. Lyon, Charles A. Herpich, Edward Martin, br., Henry Selde, Samuel H. Blum, Hugo Mischo, Harry Marx and Akiba Weinberg.
